REACTIONS TO REST'S BELIEVED DEPARTURE FOR THE ISLAND (GREAT BRITAIN):
ALEKSEJ, GUS', REST'S SISTER, MAJ (1944)

From: NEW YORK

To: MOSCOW

No.: 1233

29 August 1944

To VIKTOR[i].

In July when it became known that REST[ii] might be leaving for the ISLAND [OSTROV][iii], instructions were given to ALEKSEJ[iv], and by the latter to GUS'[v], to arrange a password for a meeting with REST in case he was leaving. On 5 August REST did not appear at the meeting and GUS' missed the next meeting, pleading pressure of work. R.[ii] was not at the following control meeting. When he checked on R.'s apartment, GUS' was informed that R. had left for the ISLAND. In order to re-check, I sent G.[v] to R.'s sister[vi]; she and her husband the departure up to 28 September[vii]

[67 groups unrecoverable]

should check his arrival. I did not have time to hand over to R. the 500 dollars authorized by you[viii].
